NO. 1 PORT FOR VEHICLE EXPORTS IN THE U.S.

More than 450,000 vehicles were exported through Jacksonville's port last year - the most in the nation. Jacksonville is also one of the nation's busiest ports for total vehicle handling.

DEDICATED SPACE

Ro/Ro berths are located in close proximity to our newly improved storage lots dedicated to tracked units.

VARIETY OF SERVICES

Port partners move everything from generators and tractors to buses and boats quickly and efficiently.

IDEAL CONDITIONS

Jacksonville enjoys a stable labor situation and temperate climate year-round.

OUTSTANDING INTERMODAL CONNECTIONS

JAXPORT terminals are serviced by three U.S. interstates (I-10, I-95 and I-75), and the city has 36 daily train departures via three railroads: CSX, Norfolk Southern, and Florida East Coast Railway.

GLOBAL CONNECTIONS

The port offers worldwide Ro/Ro service from all of the world's leading carriers specializing in high and heavy cargo.

JAXPORT offers dedicated storage for tracked and heavy cargo on reinforced concrete.
