

LINDA WILLIAMS

CHIEF, ADMINISTRATION AND CORPORATE PERFORMANCE

Linda Williams is Chief, Administration and Corporate Performance for JAXPORT, responsible for corporate performance, employee relations, audit and compliance, and ethics. In 2016, Williams assumed the additional responsibility of directing JAXPORT's Human Resources programs, including employee compensation, benefits and labor relations.

Williams has been with the port for 25 years and also serves as JAXPORT's Ethics Officer in support of the City of Jacksonville's ethics ordinance.

Williams holds certifications in Transportation and Logistics (CTL), Corporate Compliance and Ethics (CCEP) and Green Belt Six Sigma. She is also a certified Florida Public Sector

Labor Relations Professional and is a member of the Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics as well as the Society for Human Resource Management. Williams was inducted into Delta Mu Delta, the International Honor Society for Business in 2014.

Williams holds both a Bachelor of Science in Business and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Phoenix.

