

NICK PRIMROSE

Nick Primrose oversees the port's regulatory compliance in the areas of maritime law, environmental policy, safety and risk management, and governance. He also serves as JAXPORT's liaison with the City of Jacksonville's Office of General Counsel.

Primrose is an experienced public policy professional and licensed attorney.

Prior to joining JAXPORT, he served as Deputy General Counsel for Florida Governors Ron DeSantis and Rick Scott, and General Counsel for the State of Florida's Division of Emergency Management.

In these positions, he provided oversight and regulatory strategy on transportation, emergency preparedness, the economy, and other matters impacting the people of Florida.

Primrose is a member of the Florida Bar and holds a Juris Doctor from Barry University, a Master of Public Administration from DePaul University, and Bachelor of Arts degrees in political science and communications from Lake Forest College.

Since 2023, Primrose has served on the SelectFlorida Board of Directors, the state of Florida's official international commerce organization, which serves as a catalyst for economic development and high-wage job creation for Floridians. In 2025, Primrose was appointed to both the St. Johns River State College Board of Trustees and the St. Augustine Airport Authority, where he currently holds the roles of Vice-Chair and Chair, respectively. He is also a member of Leadership Florida Connect Class 11, American Enterprise Institute Leadership Network, and the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce's Hightower Emerging Leaders Fellowship program.
