

HARRY M. "REECE" WILSON, IV

Chief of Regulatory Compliance

Reece Wilson oversees the port's regulatory compliance in the areas of maritime law, environmental policy, risk management, and procurement. He also serves as JAXPORT's liaison with the City of Jacksonville's Office of General Counsel.

Wilson is an experienced attorney with more than 20 years of legal and business experience. Prior to joining JAXPORT, he served as Assistant General Counsel for the City of Jacksonville, advising executive and board leadership on real estate, business, compliance, and governance matters. In that role, he also served as primary legal counsel to JAXPORT's Board of Directors.

His previous experience includes the practice of commercial real estate law with local firms, and he has held roles as corporate counsel and in corporate finance for two publicly traded Jacksonville-based companies.

Wilson holds a Juris Doctor from the University of Georgia School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts in English from Washington and Lee University.

He is a member of the Florida Bar, its Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section, and the Jacksonville Bar Association. He previously served on the board of the North Florida Land Trust.
